Adtaxi Education Case Study

Listening for success

Situation:

A University in New Jersey wanted to drive more traffic to the undergrad pages of their website without adding more budget.

Strategy: Leverage advanced targeting to reach potential new students for the University and drive them to the University's website.

Solution: Spotify + Programmatic Display

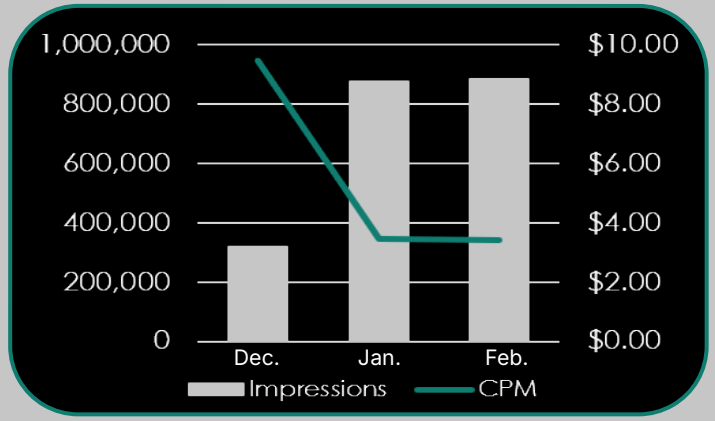

Results: Site traffic increased 34% YOY leading to an increase in online applications and campus tours.

Campaign Insights: The client is re-running this campaign for the third year in a row.
